Why Is the Church Divided?

By Carmen D. Hilliard

INTRODUCTION

Does it matter what is taught, believed and practiced in religion? Christ teaches that it does matter what we believe because it can mean the difference between going to Heaven or hell. Matthew 7:13-14: Enter ye in at the strait gate: for wide is the gate, and broad is the way, that leads to destruction, and many there be which go in: Because strait is the gate, and narrow is the way, which leads unto life, and few there be that find it.

There is only one road (doctrine) that leads to Heaven. It is narrow, leaving no room for change. But the way to destruction is broad. To travel it, one can believe anything he wishes. It sounds full of comfort to say that all churches are acceptable to God but the Bible does not support such an idea. Why is this true? How did the church become divided into many teachings?

THE CHURCH DEPARTED FROM THE TRUTH

From the time Christianity first began, it was opposed and persecuted by nonbelievers and heathen authorities. For the first 300 years, paganism was the popular religion. Christians were tortured and killed in an effort to destroy the church that Christ built. Many Christians denied their faith to keep from dying. During this time many in the church began to depart from the truth, gradually making changes in the apostles' teaching. Many principles of truth and faith that Christ gave to the church to follow were changed to fit man's will never be. But during this period of time, the truth was suppressed and practiced by only a few Christians and their efforts are not recorded in history books.

In A.D. 325, the Nicene Creed was developed by Constantine as a measuring stick to force Christians to conform. Constantine thought of himself as the high priest of Christianity. The truth continued to decline. Some of the changes that were brought about in the church were:

1. The authority of elders. It was Christ's plan for the church to have a plurality of elders to oversee the congregation. It was changed. One elder rose to power above the rest taking the rule.
2. The more powerful men formed councils and synods to force their ideas on the people. They did away with having a plurality of elders to oversee the congregation. The preacher became the leader instead.
3. Then the preacher evolved into the priest who ran the affairs of the church. Members of the church went to the priest for forgiveness of their sins, instead of praying to Christ themselves.
4. Changes were made in the Lord's Supper. The priest blessed it, pronouncing it as the real body and blood of Jesus. Instead of having the memorial of Christ each week, as the early Christians were taught to do by the apostles, it was changed to every three months or observed once a year.
5. Repentance, which means to turn away from sin, was changed to penance for sins, meaning to inflict punishment on a person who has sinned.
